ESR Entrepreneurial Ministry Certificate

Cost structure

ESR’s Entrepreneurial Ministry Certificate consists of 6 3-credit courses (18 credits) over 3 semesters (Fall – Spring – Fall). Enrollment in this program is capped at 10 students.

19-20 Tuition per credit = $600

Total tuition cost: $600 x 18 = $10,800

Fees:

- Application: $35
- Travel to Richmond for two 2-week Intensives (August 2019 and May 2020) and meals – lodging is covered
- Technology: $100 per semester x 3 = $300
- Confirmation and Registration: $125 per semester x 3 = $375
- Common Meal: $14 per Intensive X2 = $28
- Graduation: $100

Total cost: $11,638 + travel

ESR’s Entrepreneurial Ministry Certificate students are eligible for up to 25 percent of tuition in need-based aid or a 25 percent discount if the Certificate is paid for upfront. Entrepreneurial Ministry Certificate students earn graduate credit which can be applied toward ESR’s Master of Divinity program.

ESR Master of Divinity students may complete the Entrepreneurial Ministry Certificate and declare Entrepreneurial Ministry as their emphasis within the M.Div. Students electing this option are eligible for ESR’s degree-seeking scholarships and financial aid (up to 50 percent of tuition in need-based aid or our Cooper, Leadership and Service, or Quaker Professional Scholarship programs). In consultation with the Certificate program director, M.Div. students declaring an Entrepreneurial Ministry emphasis must take one of their Certificate courses as a 4.5-credit course.

*Information for 2019-20 academic year and subject to change