Earlham School of Religion
INTERNATIONAL STUDENT COOPER SCHOLAR COVENANT 2019-2020

In its continuing commitment to training leaders in the Religious Society of Friends and the wider Christian community, Earlham School of Religion offers this full tuition scholarship award to entering international residential students. Signing the following “moral obligation covenant” is the student’s way of entering into this covenant as they commit to servant leadership in developing faith, skills, and an understanding of ministry.

Student Name: ___________________________  □ M.A.  □ M.A.T.W.  □ M.Div./M.Min.

1. I understand that this scholarship provides full tuition for the length of the residential degree program when 18 credits for M.A.T.W., 24 credits for M.A. or 25 credits for M.Div. are taken annually. I have been informed of the academic reviews conducted by the faculty each semester and am aware that poor academic performance on my part may cause the termination of this scholarship.

2. I will be sensitive to and supportive of the Quaker Testimonies of Integrity, Equality, Simplicity, Community, and Peace.

3. I agree to participate in the on-campus service program that provides a way for students to contribute to the strength and vitality of the school. This program will require over the course of each year 72 service hours for M.A.T.W. students, 96 service hours for M.A. students or 100 service hours for M.Div. students.

4. I understand that failure to make adequate progress in fulfilling the volunteer service portion of this contract may cause the termination of my scholarship.

5. I intend to support the mission of Earlham School of Religion in future years. I know that the education of future generations depends, in part, on my personal interest, encouragement, and financial support.

My signature on this “moral obligation covenant” is an expression of my willingness to partner with Earlham School of Religion.
