Disability Disclosure

Earlham School of Religion assists students with disabilities by providing reasonable accommodations. Each student with a disability who requests such accommodations must provide information and recent documentation form their doctor (generally within the past three years) concerning his/her specific condition.

We are most effective when disclosure of a disability is made prior to a student’s arrival on campus. Early disclosure expedites ESR’s verification process, and it allows students to begin receiving reasonable accommodations more quickly. If you are a student with a disability, please help us serve you by providing the information on this form.

Nature of Disability
Please provide a brief description of the nature of your disability. Attach disability documentation, from an appropriate professional, which includes information about your diagnosis and your diagnostic evaluation. Such documentation should include information about recommended accommodations. Additional pages may be sent to provide more details about your disability and the specific accommodations requested. All documentation is kept confidential and should be sent to the address listed at the bottom of this form.
